

Checklist of items to bring to DTI Summerschool

During the time the Summerschool takes place – end of August and beginning of September – the weather in the Münsterland region can be variable. Conditions may range from rainy days with daytime temperatures around 15°C and noticeably cold nights, to hot and dry summer days exceeding 30°C. Participants should be prepared for a full spectrum of weather, including both sun and rain.

The following list provides an overview of items participants of the DTI Summer School should bring along to ensure they are well-prepared for all activities and overnight stays.
