

Checklist of items to bring to DTI Summerschool

During the period of the Summer School — from late July to early August — weather conditions in the Münsterland region can vary significantly. Participants may experience anything from cool, rainy days with temperatures around 15 °C and chilly nights to hot, dry summer days exceeding 30 °C. It is therefore essential to be prepared for a wide range of weather scenarios, including both sun and rain.

To support a productive and enjoyable experience, participants are encouraged to follow these general tips:

- Start each day with a proper breakfast to stay energized.
- Stay hydrated throughout the day, especially during outdoor activities.
- Wear appropriate clothing in layers to adjust to changing temperatures.
- Use sunscreen and insect repellent when needed.
- Get sufficient rest each night — the program can be physically and mentally demanding.
- Keep personal belongings safe and always carry essential documents.
- Stay open-minded and respectful in all group interactions — cultural exchange is a key part of the experience.

Budget (Please remember, you are responsible for yourself... :-))

- We cover:
 - some hotel rooms (related to funding depending on participating schools)
 - breakfast for participating students in hotel
 - bus transfer to and from sites according to schedule
 - museums entrance/tickets to sites
 - workshop costs
- You have to cover:
 - 15 EUR for Picknick-Korb
 - your travel arrangements e.g. train tickets: see Deutschlandticket for transportation from airport to translation Münster, to the hotel)
 - food & beverages: ±25 EUR/day in universities cafeteria, restaurant visits, bars, etc.
